

Global Society and Japan: 70 Years after the World War II and beyond

2016. 2/12 Fri.

13:30-18:00 Open 13:00

Conference Hall, 7th floor of the Integrated Research Bldg. for Humanities & Social Sciences

Admission free
No registration required

Eng./Japanese
Simultaneous
Translation

● Keynote Speech (13:30-14:30)

My thought on 70 years after the WWII

Akio Watanabe

Professor emeritus, University of Tokyo,
Aoyama Gakuin University

● Speech/Discussion (14:35-18:00)

Japan's Role in East Asian Regional Security

Hideshi Tokuchi

Former Vice Minister of Defence for International Affairs,
Visiting Fellow, Sophia Institute of International Relations

G7 Ise-Shima Summit & Messages from Japan

Shigeki Takizaki

Secretary-General for the Ise-Shima Summit and the Hiroshima
Foreign Ministers' Meeting (Ambassador)

70 years of Germany after the WWII

Toshiya Nakamura

Professor, Nagoya University/Director, GMRC

Australia's Changing Perceptions of Japan: From Source of Anxiety to 'Best Friend in Asia'

Nick Bisley

Professor, La Trobe University, Australia/Executive Director,
La Trobe Asia

Japan's image reflected among the Vietnamese people through the Vietnamese media after Doi Moi (Innovation)

Nguyễn Cẩm Tuyền

Tokyo Bureau Chief, Vietnam News Agency, Vietnam

Japan and Asia from the viewpoint of a Singaporean correspondent

Foo Choo Wei

Tokyo Correspondent for Lianhe Zaobao, Singapore Press
Holdings Limited, Singapore

Moderator: Assoc. Prof. Nobuhiro Ihara (GMRC)

Hideshi Tokuchi

Shigeki Takizaki

Toshiya Nakamura

Nick Bisley

Nguyễn Cẩm Tuyền

Foo Choo Wei